

8 January 2002.

(Z. 15.)
81/142289

The Secretary General,
African National Congress,
Luthuli House,
Plein Street,
Johannesburg.

Dear Comrade Kgalema,

As you may be aware I have been on holiday since 16 December 2001, and from the 27th of the same month I have been in Maputo. On the 20th of this month I will pass through Pretoria to a game farm and will return to Johannesburg on 1 February 2002.

Last Sunday I watched the television screens and saw the vast crowd that assembled at the Absa Stadium to celebrate the 90th ^{Anniversary} ~~ABC~~ of the organisation. I also saw two well-known heavyweights from Luthuli House dancing sprightly with the crowd. I am sure all those who witnessed how numble they were in their faces were tremendously impressed. They would have expected them, ~~to~~ as some of us did, to move ponderously according to dignity and Convention.

I send you warmest congratulations and a happy new year.

Sincerely,
Macuba.