TERMS AND REFERENCE OF IMPLEMENTING AGENTS
Community Conversation CCEP Trainer and CCE Dialogue Quality Support

1. Background to the Project

The Nelson Mandela Foundation has developed the Community Conversations with a focus on HIV/AIDS programme to create interactive spaces within communities in order to generate a response to HIV/AIDS, which integrates individual and collective concerns, values and beliefs; and to address individual and collective attitudes and behaviours embedded in social systems and structures.

The Programme is a project initiated by the Nelson Mandela Foundation. The project is predicated on the belief and ethos of its founder, Nelson Mandela, in the power of dialogue as a precursor to solving society’s problems. Through a series of community conversations within the nine provinces in South Africa. The anticipated direct benefit of the project is that participants will engage through an interactive dialogue process to create community driven solutions to the challenges they face in respect of the epidemic. The NMF will continue to employ the Community Capacity Enhancement (CCE) Methodology as the key framework through which the community conversation will be undertaken.

The Programme recognises that the existing capacity and initiatives undertaken by NGOs, local government, faith and community based organisations in responding to concerns around HIV/AIDS and aims to partner with organisations (hereinafter referred to as “implementing agents”) working in the selected sites towards developing appropriate strategies for a response that places communities and individuals at the centre of a comprehensive strategy to build social cohesion.
The NMF has appointed a programme management unit, responsible for implementation of the programme (hereinafter referred to as “PMU”) with the responsibility for implementing all three main components of the programme including, the coordination of the community conversations, capacity development and coordination of the facilitators and the design and implementation of research.

Project Purpose and Objectives of the Programme

Purpose

Community engagement through dialogue is an approach that takes cognisance of the socio-cultural dynamics of a community holding a dialogue with its own soul on the HIV and AIDS epidemic. This approach builds on our capacity to respond to a crisis by giving communities tools with which to lead a dialogue and structure a credible response. It stands out as a people’s participation approach. It focuses on people and their interactions, on their strengths and resources. It is based on the premise that all people have the capacity to respond effectively to a life-threatening epidemic.

Specific objectives

- Awareness on HIV and AIDS is raised in the 9 provinces in communities across South Africa;
- Communities share on HIV and AIDS issues through the Dialogue process;
- Integrate community concerns and decisions into national and local level plans with the aim of linking resources to individual and collective needs.

Capacity building

Strengthen the capacity of NGOs, local government, faith and community-based organizations to develop appropriate strategies for a response that places communities and individuals at the centre of a comprehensive strategy to build social cohesion.

Roles and Responsibilities
