Collaborative Scarves

“This range is inspired by Madiba’s thoughts, dreams and imagination. How he hoped for freedom and brought to reality his dream of the rainbow nation. The photographic illustration and colour of the range is inspired by an image of his latter years, a dreamy glance of happiness and fulfillment that is contrasted with a similar glance out of the prison windows of Robben Island, in his minds eye, a view of a free South Africa, that is now vibrant and bold in its freedom of expression.

We have crafted contemporary designs; yet stand true to our heritage. Our products and designs are authentically South African, created and produced by supporting local industry and engaging in employment and education initiatives with our supply partners.”
